MARKET UPDATE

• Commentary for the week of February 12th

- This week will see issuance drop by roughly 50% to $4.25 billion in tax exempts from $8 billion issued the previous week. So far for 2024 the weekly issuance average is $6.53 billion. Treasuries in the front end drifted 2bps overnight while the 10/30yr were flat. Following the CPI revisions (Dec All-Items changed to +0.2% from 0.3% prior), algorithms were triggered to cover shorts but were generally weaker on the day. Most were looking ahead to this week's litany of economic data to be released: CPI, PPI, Retail Sales, Industrial Prod, and Jobless Claims.
- Last Thursday Lipper reported fund outflows of $121.2 million for the week ending 02/07/2024 compared to inflows of $1.4 billion the prior week. The 4-week moving average is currently $640.2 million per week of inflows from last week's $648 million per week of inflows. The High Yield Muni bond funds saw inflows of $327.3mln compared to last week's inflows of $638.7mln. As of last Friday, the 10-year and 30-year AAA MMD yields stood at 2.43% and 3.57%, respectively. The 10-year and 30-year US Treasury rates are at 4.17% and 4.37%, respectively.
- This week Estrada Hinojosa is a Co-Managing Underwriter on a $150 million Humble ISD, Unlimited Tax School Building Bonds, Series 2024 issue.
- The primary calendar is estimated to be $5.8 billion and is comprised of $4.1 billion in negotiated deals and $1.3 billion in competitive deals.
